MISBEHAVIOUR AND SANCTIONS FOR STUDENTS

Students are accountable for their actions; they are responsible for conducting themselves properly, in a way that upholds the reputation of the school, and in a manner appropriate to their age and level of maturity. They will be asked to explain any behaviour that departs from the guidelines in the Code of Conduct for Students - initially to their tutor or class teacher. Should any student persist in ignoring the Code of Conduct or be in serious breach of it, he or she will be accountable to their Head of School and ultimately to the CEO. Parents may not be informed at the first level of accountability, but will always be informed at the higher levels.

APPLICATION OF SANCTIONS

The school will apply sanctions according to the schedule below and will take into account such factors as past history of misbehaviour, circumstances under which the misbehaviour occurred, the age of the student, and other factors which are perceived to be relevant. Misbehaviour which represents breaches of the Code of Conduct are classified according to their levels of severity and those listed are examples of misbehaviour at each level. Each list is not therefore exhaustive.

LEVEL 1

Misbehaviour at this level represents minor infractions of procedures which regulate the orderly operation of the school, its environment, its users, and the teaching and learning process.

- Showing disrespect for others
- Littering/ inconsiderate disposal of waste items
- Being late to school or class
- Failure to complete work to a deadline
- Minor defacing of school property
- Inappropriate personal appearance
- Use of offensive language
- Hindering the progress of other students
- Inappropriate use of the internet, intranet or other ICT resources

Sanctions that are applied against this kind of misbehaviour include:

- A reprimand or a warning
- Writing a letter of apology
- A withdrawal of privileges
- A school community work order
- A detention

MISBEHAVIOURS WHICH INCLUDE PHYSICAL ASSAULTS AND INFRINGEMENTS OF THE LAW

All involved in a serious physical assault that leads to bodily harm (those assaulting and those being assaulted) will normally be excluded from school for the rest of the day on which the assault takes place, and the following day for a cool-off period during which an investigation will take place.

For any student's misbehaviour which infringes on the laws of Singapore, the school may inform the relevant authorities. Where it is mandatory under the laws of Singapore to report the infringement, the school will inform the relevant authorities.

APPEALS

A permanent exclusion order is reached by the relevant Head of School in consultation with the CEO. The Chair of the Board will be notified of any permanent exclusion order reached. A student given a permanent exclusion order, and / or his or her parents, has the right of appeal. Such an appeal will be considered by the Disciplinary Sub-Committee of the Board of Governors. Further, the Disciplinary Sub-Committee is empowered to hear the views of others in its review before making a final decision.
